

Logical Consequences (Not Punishment)

You Break It, You Fix It
Spill something	Clean it up
Break something	Fix it or buy replacement if possible. If not, offer to "work it off."
Knock someone over	Stop to apologize and help them up; write an apology note if necessary.
Say unkind words	Apologize; think of 3 put-ups; write a letter by the end of the day..
Loss of Privilege
Using camera inappropriately on ChromeBook	Lose Chromebook; App uninstalled
Too loud at partner reading	No Partner Reading for a couple days
Work not completed	Do in study hall or at home for homework.
Playing around in BR	Must use BR by his/herself at the end of the class BR break. Not allowed to go to BR except with group.
Too loud or disruptive in hall	Student must always walk next to teacher.
Student disruptive at desk	Student must sit next to teacher to complete work.
Student disruptive in whole group gathering	Student must sit right by the teacher.
Students are not using a Level 1 Whisper Voice	Give warning; If it continues, students are not allowed to talk at all.
Notes not turned in to parents; AB not signed after behavior issue	Student must call parents.
Cheat on study island group session	Lose Chromebook - have to hand-write answers
Lose Recess Time to Practice Skill
Talking in hall	Come in at recess to practice walking quietly in the hall.
Running in hall	Come in at recess to practice walking in the hall.